

WONE is a south african telecommunication company. It actually provides communication services like internet packages, call services, and also money transferring between this mobile operators. The targeted audiences of this company are the mid-aged south african people. This mobile company is special than others for their money transferring system. People nowadays want to do their regarding needs in one platform. Keeping this in mind the mobile company added the money transferring system besides it's telecommunication services.

WONE

A trusted mobile company